

A journal for the people you care for, given.

Hospitals and care associations can ask us for Dogood Plus for the people they look after. We read every request ourselves and, whenever we can, give it: free, for life.

 Free, for life Nothing asked in return Private, even from us

Three steps, and then it is theirs.

01

Ask in a few lines

Your hospital, ward or association, and about how many people. Nothing to sign.

02

Get one link

If we can say yes: the link, a poster with its QR code, and the places left at a glance.

03

They open it

On their own phone or tablet, theirs for life, even after they leave your care.

A gift, with no strings.

Free, for good No trial, nothing to renew, no payment details asked, now or later.

Nothing in return No logo, no testimonial, no publicity: we will not use your name to sell Dogood.

Private, even from you Each journal stays on its writer's device. Neither you nor we can read a word of it.

Nothing to manage No accounts, no list of patients, no data about anyone: there is nothing to look after.

Who can ask.

 Hospitals and children's wards Hospices and palliative care Rehabilitation centres Patients' and families' associations

+50 47 opened · 13 places left

 No names, no accounts: each journal stays with its writer

Ask for Dogood Plus.

A few lines in the form at dogood.bemorin.com/care, or an email to support@bemorin.com. We read every request ourselves and answer within a few days.

Scan to ask